EASIER SAID THAN DONE PART 1

There are some things in life that are easier said than done. For example, a healthy diet and regular exercise will help you stay fit, feel good, and help you live longer. However, when you catch a whiff of a burger on a grill, a pizza fresh out of the oven, or some fresh chocolate chip cookies, the thought of a salad and vegetables is not going to curb that desire. You may know exactly what diet you should be on and what exercise routine will help you, but to actually do those things becomes a challenge. As for our spiritual health, avoiding sin can also be one of those things easier said than done.

When I think about how to overcome sin and temptations in my life, one of the first passages I think of is Psalm 119. In Psalm 119:9-11, David says, "How can a young man keep his way pure? By guarding it according to your word. With my whole heart I seek you; let me not wander from your commandments! I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you." David explained exactly what to do when it comes to dealing with sin. To store up the word of God in your heart and to use that word as a guard from sin. Look at the testimony that David made to God as well. He said that with his whole heart he seeks God. When I read this small passage, I begin to see why David was regarded as a man after God's own heart.

What is hard for me to believe though is that the same man who wrote exactly what to do to overcome and avoid sin in our lives ended up lusting after another man's wife, committing adultery with her, then devises a plan to have the husband killed. This is the same David who in Psalm 119:16 says, "I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word." As said earlier, some things are easier said than done. So what could cause a man who knows exactly what to do to keep from having sin enter his life, commit such a crime. Well, James gives us some insight on this. James 1:14-15 says, "But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death." this is the path that David walked, and the same path that we walk today. The path begins with temptation, and where does the temptation come from? It does not come from Satan putting us in any bad deal or situation. The inspired writing of James tells us that temptation comes from our own desires.

THANK YOU NOTES

I want to thank everyone for the cards, food, and phone calls, during my recovery of my hip replacement. I am ready to be back at church. Thank you again. Sara Savells

My family and I would like to thank everyone from Nashville Road that has sent cards to me. They have really brightened my days. Thank you so much. Rick Gray
(friend of Donna Jennings)

I want to thank all of you for your very generous contribution totaling $13,323.00 as we shift our focus this year to the Hilltop Station Congregation. We hope to fulfill another chapter of giving the church a permanent presence in Sierra Leone. It is something that the Lord commanded each of us to do, and even though all of us cannot go over there to work first hand, you are partners in the Lord's work through your donations. This is the reason the Lord fixed the contribution as part of our worship.

Thank you all again and God Bless You,
Bob Brown Sierra Leone Mission.

SYMPATHY

Our Love and Sympathy to Sylvia Williams and family with the passing of her husband David on Thursday, June 6. A Memorial service will be held Saturday, June 15th at 11:00am, here at Nashville Road.

WONDERFUL FATHERS

Fathers are just wonderful in a million different ways, and they merit loving compliments and accolades of praise. Today cherish your own father and esteem all fathers. Fathers are educators, models, providers, and sources of love for their children. Daily they uphold the role of hero in their children's eyes.
